PTA Pantomime

Another first for the EIC PTA! A pantomime, and we didn't make it easy for ourselves, we didn't just have Dick Whittington, but Snow White and the Seven PTA Members, Cinderellla and her Ugly Sisters, Aladdin, the Genie and Evil Jafar (who could forget him?) Dorothy from The Wizard of Oz as well as Tina Turner doing a turn, plus many others, including John Birch as himself.

Organising parents to arrive on time, on the right day was a logistical nightmare - not to mention learning lines, acting and then doing the two together! But we did it and it was a great success. The feedback included comments such as 'great', 'excellent', 'brilliant' and 'haven't laughed so much in ages' and the fact we had to put on another performance spoke volumes, people were talking about the 'next one'!

The children, who it was really for, quickly realised that they could join in the booing, singing and 'he's behind you' and judging by the noise level thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

It was a great experience, great camaraderie and a wonderful achievement by everyone involved - perhaps this will be the beginning of another EIC tradition.
